NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Dr. Michael Gliatto Selected as Associate Chief of Staff of Mental Health

Coatesville, PA – July 27, 2009 – Coatesville Veterans Affairs Medical Center is pleased to announce the recent appointment of Michael Gliatto, MD, as the associate chief of staff of mental health at the medical center.

“Dr. Gliatto is a great addition to our talented mental health team” said Gary W. Devansky, medical center director, “He brings valuable experience and a dedication to Veterans that will truly contribute to the high quality mental health care we provide here.”

Previously, Dr. Gliatto was chief of mental health at Philadelphia Veterans Affairs Medical Center (VAMC) from 2004 until 2009. Prior to that, he worked on both the central intake and inpatient psychiatry units at Philadelphia VAMC. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from Villanova and his Medical degree from St. Louis University. He completed residencies in psychiatry and internal medicine at the University of Pennsylvania and Hahnemann University Hospital, respectively.

“I have spent all of my career with the Department of Veterans Affairs because I have always enjoyed working with Veterans,” said Dr. Gliatto, “The Department of Veterans Affairs strives to provide excellent care and I am glad to be part of this organization. I am excited by the new challenges that I will face at Coatesville VA Medical Center.”
